

Alpha Phi Omega Golf Club USA

Charitable Giving Process Policy

Purpose

The Alpha Phi Omega Golf Club USA (APOGC USA) Charitable Giving Program exists to give back to our communities in a manner consistent with the principles of Alpha Phi Omega: Leadership, Friendship, and Service. This process is designed to be inclusive, transparent, and member-driven, while remaining manageable for a growing organization.

Guiding Principles

- Member Voice: All members may participate in nominating and selecting charitable organizations.
 - Fairness: Officers facilitate the process but do not determine outcomes.
 - Simplicity: The process is streamlined to avoid unnecessary complexity.
 - Transparency: Decisions and outcomes are clearly communicated to all members.

Charitable Giving Cycle

Charitable giving will occur once or twice per year, depending on club activity and available funds.

At the start of each cycle, officers will announce:

- Total charitable budget for the cycle
 - Nomination and voting timelines

Nomination Process

1. Each member may nominate one charitable organization per cycle.
2. Nominations will be submitted via an online form during a 7–10 day nomination window.
3. Charities should:
 - Align with APO values
 - Serve a community, educational, health, service, or similar mission
 - Be a legitimate, recognized charitable organization

Members may suggest (but do not require) a donation amount.

Shortlisting

After nominations close:

- Officers or a small rotating committee will conduct basic eligibility screening only
- Multiple nominations for the same charity will be combined
- A shortlist of up to 5–8 charities will be created for voting

No ranking or preference judgments will be made at this stage.

 Important: No ranking, no “best” judgments—just eligibility.

Voting & Allocation

All members will be invited to vote using an online form. Voting may be conducted by:

- Ranked-choice voting or
- Member allocation of “club dollars” across shortlisted charities

Funds will be distributed based on the aggregated results.

Announcement & Impact

After voting:

- Selected charities and donation amounts will be announced
 - Members who nominated each charity will be acknowledged (optional)
 - When possible, updates on the impact of donations will be shared

Review

This process may be reviewed annually to ensure it continues to serve the club's values and membership effectively.
